

GIVING A LEGACY OF LIBERTY

Your gift to the Cato Institute is put to work to restore liberty today and for the generations to come. There are several ways to support Cato's vital work for freedom, including ■ Gifts of cash – Use the detachable envelope to become a Cato Sponsor or make a bonus contribution to Cato. There is no limit on the amount of your contribution, and it may be made as an individual, or through a corporation, partnership or foundation. Gifts may be eligible for corporate matching grants.

■ Gifts of appreciated securities – Many individuals have stocks, mutual funds or other securities that have appreciated such that tax consequences of sale would be significant. Your gift of appreciated securities is not only tax-deductible, but allows you to avoid capital gains taxes.

Gifts of appreciated securities may be made by having your broker or mutual fund company wire the securities directly to Cato's account at Charles Schwab & Company. The account name is "Cato Institute," Account No. 2170-8366, DTC No. 0164, Code 40. Please notify Cato of the number of shares and company name or symbol by e-mail: ydavis@cato.org.

■ Gifts of life insurance – Naming Cato as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy is an option many have chosen for making planned gifts to the Institute.

■ Other planned gifts – Several other planned giving options are available. For a free booklet describing these options, check the box labeled "Please send me information about planned giving" on the detachable reply envelope.

Before making a planned gift, please consult your financial adviser. Contributions to Cato can also be made online at www.cato.org. Cato is a 501(c) 3 nonprofit, nonpartisan educational institution.
