On 01/20/17, various groups protested against the Inauguration of President-elect Donald Trump. Some of the protesting groups engaged in civil disorder by smashing windows, vandalizing cars, throwing objects at police, setting fires, blocking accesses and roadways, and attempting to breach security fencing. The groups involved were: Refuse Fascism, Black Lives Matter, DisruptJ20, Future Feminists, as well as unidentified anarchist and environmental groups. Over the course of the day, and at multiple protest sites, MPD, FPS, and USPP arrested a reported 218 individuals to be charged with felony rioting; arrests associated with this civil disorder will be indexed under this 672.

Prior to the Inauguration, PID received reporting on 01/12/17 that Black Block Oregon distributed instructions on how to construct Molotov cocktails and implied their use at the upcoming Inauguration.

What follows is a list of specific incidents that took place on 01/20/17; please see cross referenced 673 cases for additional details from each of the annotated demonstrations.

At 1018 hours, a group of approximately 200 demonstrators with DisruptJ20 wore gasmasks and black clothing during a demonstration in the vicinity of 15th and I Streets. Shortly after the demo started, they began throwing water bottles at the National Guard and lighting fireworks. The group set fire to a stretch limo in the area and threw trashcans in the street. (673-89690)

At 1111 hours, a group of 300 black block anarchists (dressed in black gear) began smashing windows and setting fires in the vicinity of Logan Circle. Two police officers were injured as MPD attempted to gain control of the crowd. (673-89692)

At 1140 hours, a group of 150 Black Lives Matter and Planned Parenthood protestors along with unidentified anarchist and environmental groups locked arms and blocked access to two pedestrian checkpoints along 3rd St NW (at Indiana Ave and C St NW). (673-89693)

At 1354 hours, approximately 1000 members of Refuse Fascism blocked highway I395 at Exit 1B. (673-89694)

At 1410 hours, an unknown number of Black Lives Matter, Refuse Fascism, and DisruptJ20 members along with various members of environmental and other anarchist groups began a demonstration in the vicinity of 12th and K Streets. Shortly after the start of the protest, demonstrators began throwing smoke bombs, bricks, and rocks at police in the area. Demonstrators reportedly employed crowbars and other implements to break windows on cars. During the protest, demonstrators swarmed a USSS vehicle and smashed windows. The driver of the vehicle was uninjured and the vehicle egressed the area en route to USSS/HQ (MEM-17-00025). USSS/OSU reported that Refuse Fascism live streamed the event. (673-89695)

At 1453 hours, an unnamed group of anarchists attempted to jump fences in the vicinity of the Navy Memorial in a suspected attempt to disrupt the Inauguration Parade. When that proved unsuccessful, additional demonstrators threw things onto Pennsylvania Ave. (673-89697)

At 1542 hours, social media sources reported demonstrators were vandalizing vehicles in the vicinity of Franklin Square. Additional reports suggested the employment of tear gas and flash bangs in the area. (673-89698)

At 1544 hours, an unknown number of ANSWER Coalition demonstrators cut wires for the Inaugural Parade's sound system in an attempt to disrupt the event. (673-89699)

At 1912 hours, a group of 250 anarchists were breaking glass and setting fires in the vicinity of 14th and K Streets. (673-89701)

At 1941 hours, a group of 200 Refuse Fascism members accosted attendees to an event in the vicinity

CASE SUMMARY

On 01/18/17, approximately 500 demonstrators participated in a LGBTQ Dance Party organized by WERK for Peace outside the temporary residence for Vice President-elect Mike Pence; members of the ad hoc anarchist group DisruptJ20 may also have participated. The protestors possessed signs and sound equipment; they also played music.

At one point, the demonstration became mobile and momentarily blocked an avenue leading to the residence, but they were under escort by MPDC and the blockage was cleared.

The demonstration concluded without any further incident or arrest.

CASE SUMMARY

On 01/20/17, approximately 200 members of DisruptJ20 demonstrated in the vicinity of 15th and I Streets in Washington, DC during Inauguration Day (678-213). The group possessed gasmasks and wore black clothing. The group began throwing water bottles at National Guard members in the vicinity and lighting fireworks. During the demonstration, DisruptJ20 protestors lit a stretch limo on fire which prompted a response from DC Fire; other members were lighting trash and clothing on fire in trash cans.

A short time later, other DisruptJ20 members began demonstrating at 13th and F Streets, NW. This group possessed signs, sound equipment, and tubas. They claimed they were going to initiate a dance party.

The demonstration concluded without further incident.

CASE SUMMARY

On 08/22/17, a group of approximately 2500 demonstrators affiliated with various groups including the John Brown Gun Club, Puente Human Rights Movement, and the Southern Arizona Militia demonstrated in the vicinity of the Phoenix Convention Center while President Donald Trump was visiting (674-146275). The demonstration began with members of the John Brown Gun Club and the Puente Human Rights Movement protesting President Trump, white supremacy, and other causes with a small contingent of the Southern Arizona Militia holding what appeared to be a counter-protest. Other smaller groups of demonstrators with unknown group affiliation protested against President Trump with members who actively attempted to provoke violence. In the late evening, as the demonstrations continued, several protestors began to throw rocks, bottles, and smoke bombs at local LEOs; Phoenix PD responded with pepper balls and smoke bombs. As the groups dispersed, four people were arrested, two for assault on police, one for criminal damage, and the last for an unrelated misdemeanor warrant.

After the crowds were dispersed, the demonstrations concluded without further incident.

As of 09/21/17, Phoenix PD has not yet released the names of the three persons arrested.

CASE SUMMARY

On 06/02/20, approximately 5,000 people protested in Washington, DC at several locations, notably, in Lafayette Park in the vicinity of the White House. The protests were part of nationwide protests following the in-custody death of George Floyd in Minneapolis, MN. Several groups, including Black Lives Matter and Protest DMV, participated in formal and informal events. Demonstrators in the vicinity of the White House were in possession of sound equipment and signs. Some members of Shutdown DC hosted a demonstration in Lafayette Park to "demand justice for George Floyd." This demonstration has been included in the period of civil disorder occurring in the Washington, DC area (672-26664). Open source information indicated Smash Racism may be participating in some of the demonstrations.

Protestors were observed dumping an unknown liquid on the street. Other groups of protestors were wearing masks and armed with bats. A pallet of bricks were noted in the vicinity with no construction nearby. Demonstrators began throwing water bottles and glass bottles at officers in Lafayette Park; later, demonstrators threw rocks. DC National Guard units were called in to supplement USPP.

During the course of the protests, two individuals were arrested. (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) was arrested after officer observed a firearm on the floorboard on the driver's side. The weapon was later determined to be a BB pistol. (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) was arrested for "imitation pistol." The second arrest was (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) who was also arrested for possession of a BB gun.

The demonstrations concluded.

Anarchist and Antifa threat to law enforcement

ORIGINS AND OBJECTIVES

Antifaschistische Aktion, also known as Antifa, has remained an ideological movement throughout the world since the 1930s when Antifa was born as a militant, anti-fascist, and left-wing movement to counter the influence of the Nazi Party in Germany. Historically, supporters of Antifa were a type of anarchist extremist, defined as groups or individuals who facilitate or engage in acts of violence as means of changing the government and society. Since World War II, the term Antifa grew to become synonymous with decentralized, militant street activism associated with left-wing extremists.

Activity credited to anarchists and Antifa is often achieved through decentralization and loose coalitions of individuals and small groups employing the principles of leaderless resistance. Participants are connected by their shared belief in the fundamental ideology instead of a coherent command structure or designated group membership—which may be fleeting and last only a few hours. These loose coalitions, when they do form, undergo significant transformations through name changes, merges, splintering, disbanding, and reconstitution.

The Antifa movement appears to operate on two levels. On an operational level, militant, underground, ideologically-motivated individuals engage in illegal activity through direct action and leaderless resistance. The principle of direct action implies an urgency suggesting violence as an acceptable means to an end. On another level, the aboveground public face (the “political wing”) may focus on propaganda and the dissemination of ideology—engaging in protected First Amendment activity.

CASE SUMMARY

Antifa adherents, who are often also anarchists, engage in violence and other direct action to oppose fascism and white supremacy. Many of the objectives and actions taken by anarchists and Antifa overlap making the terms somewhat synonymous.

The USSS recorded multiple encounters with Antifa since 2016; however, most USSS interactions occurred at or after the 2017 Presidential Inauguration. Although most USSS encounters have been without civil disorder, Antifa adherents and supporters have been involved in several protests that included violence, vandalism, and acts of civil disobedience.

In January 2017, DisruptJ20, a loose network, carried out an inauguration day protest causing over $100,000 dollars in damage to downtown Washington, DC, property. Over 300 people were arrested for felony rioting, but all charges were later dropped by the US Attorney's Office.

In August 2018, a coalition of 18 activist groups counter-protested against members of the alt-right movement at the Unite the Right Rally II in Washington, DC. The coalition group titled "DC Against Hate" numbered nearly 3,000 anarchists and Antifa adherents. DC Against Hate threw bottles and bricks at alt-right demonstrators and law enforcement, as well as balloons filled with vinegar, urine, and possibly feces at law enforcement officers. A UD lieutenant and an officer were injured when an unknown substance was thrown in their faces.

In May and June 2020, areas in and around the White House Complex were subject to near nightly protests and demonstrations related to the in-custody death of George Floyd. Protesters, including those associated with left-wing coalitions such as Refuse Fascism and All Out DC took to the streets. While some protest activity was peaceful there were numerous clashes with law enforcement. Protestors employed the use of thrown objects, to include fireworks, and hand-held objects, such as rocks, bottles and sticks while engaging in vandalism, looting, and property damage. More than 100 USSS employees sustained injuries. (b)(7)(E)

Phoenix police confirmed the arrest of a handful of people after protesters clashed with law enforcement outside of the Phoenix Convention Center after President Trump wrapped up his speech there Tuesday evening.

Two people were arrested for assault on police, there was one criminal damage arrest, and another person was arrested for an unrelated misdemeanor warrant, Phoenix police chief Jeri Williams told reporters, according to Arizona Republic reporter Megan Cassidy.

Four people were arrested outside the Phoenix Convention Center after President Trump's campaign-style rally on Tuesday night.

While Trump launched renewed attacks on the media in a free-wheeling speech to a crowd of fans inside, police kept protesters and Trump supporters on separate sides of the street outside.

The largely peaceful protests in Phoenix took a turn after Trump's speech ended and someone lobbed rocks and bottles at cops, according to police spokesman Jonathan Howard.

Police fired pepper spray at the crowds in response and people fled the scene coughing as an officer in a helicopter bellowed through a speaker urging protesters to leave the area.

Shut Down DC-Climate Strike Washington, DC20 mins · 🌐...

For more than a week thousands of people have taken to the streets to demand an end to the systematic murder of Black and Brown people in our country. Rather than hearing the urgent cry for justice, our leaders have used tear gas, pepper spray, rubber bullets, and batons to attack protesters; called up military units to patrol our streets (even buzzing protesters with a Black Hawk helicopter last night); and issued outrageous curfews to try to keep us off the streets and shut down dissent. Last night Mayor Bowser ordered DC Metro Police to round up and arrest hundreds of our friends and neighbors.

But they will not keep us silent. We are inspired by the thousands of young people of color who are leading in this moment and have been taking to the streets night after night for the past week. Tonight we're headed to the streets to join this powerful uprising, to learn from, and to follow the leadership of the young people who are rising up in this moment.

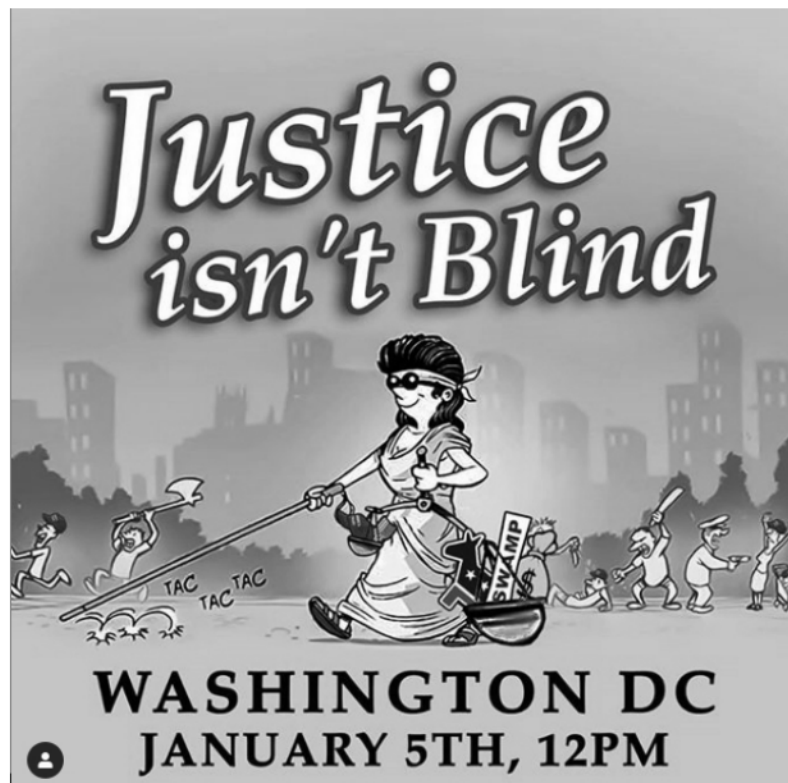

And we invite you to join us if you are able.

Meet at Lafayette Park (16th and H NW or as close to there as you can get) starting at 5pm. Stay in the streets past Mayor Bowser's arbitrary curfew and continue to demand justice for George Floyd and other victims of police violence, accountability for killer cops, and the end of the violent policing of communities of color.

Please make a plan to stay healthy and safe in the streets. Wear a mask and other appropriate personal protective equipment. Come with a buddy (or a group!). Bring plenty of water to drink, some snacks, and a fully charged cell phone.

See you at 5pm.
Love and Solidarity,
#ShutDownDC

..... We are headed to DC this weekend to rally for our fellow Americans who have been locked up for being nationalist and supporting free speech for all citizens! I'm honestly ashamed in our movement for not mentioning these individuals who are being targeted for fighting off antifa and other leftist groups that want to do nothing but destroy this great nation. No matter what happens, I will always protect free speech and all speech, because our founding fathers didn't intend for us to be selective

INCIDENT OF INTEREST:

On 01/13/17, at 1507 hours EST, USSS/PID/DSAIC (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) notified the PIOC of the following planned activities by the group "Disrupt J20.

The below information was provided voluntarily by concerned citizens, and was exclusive of law enforcement involvement. It discusses potential criminal activity surrounding the Inaugural Events.

On Friday, 1/13/2017, at approximately 0900 hours, members of the (b)(7)(D) met with Attorney (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) and three members of the group Project Veritas, had infiltrated the Disrupt J20 protest on their own accord and had been attending planning meetings. The members contacted the FBI due to concerning information obtained in the planning meetings involving criminal activity surrounding INAUG.

The following is a summary of the events discussed and planned leading up to the Inauguration:

On Saturday, 1/14/17 - Monday, 1/16/17, Disrupt J20 will be hosting a direct action training camp at American University (AU). The location was secured by one of the Disrupt J20 activists, (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) and will be held at the School of International Studies in which he is the building manager. Self Defense classes are being taught, as well as resisting arrest tactics.

Training is provided under the guise of "protecting oneself if attacked by Trump supporters," but the primary goal is actually how to resist arrest. The Activists discussed that the tactics would potentially be used on law enforcement, but they have to publically promote it as being against Trump Supporters so as not to draw the attention of local police. Attendee estimates are from 200-250. Disrupt J20 activists do not anticipate any interference from MPD, as they believe MPD Officers will sympathize with the anti-Trump sentiment.

On 1/17/17 – 1/18/17, Disrupt J20 activists plan to discuss conducting dry run protests in WDC and on the highways leading into WDC to see local law enforcement response. Disrupt J20 made mention during meetings of trying to bus in individuals on 1/17/17 and 1/18/17 due to their intent to "shut down" avenues of ingress for WDC.

On Thursday, 1/19/17, the DC Antifascist movement and Disrupt J20 plan on infiltrating the DeploraBall, being hosted at the National Press Club. The group has obtained two tickets for the Ball, and discussed deploying stink bombs in the building or in the air system. Also discussed was deploying the sprinkler system. The goal is to force attendees to exit the building, where they will be met by protesters outside who intend on spraying them with squirt guns filled with water and possibly urine. In tandem with the DeploraBall event, protesters plan on distracting the police by staging an unspecified event at the Trump Hotel to pull attention away the National Press Club. Numbers are estimated at 50+, but there is NFI. In order to smuggle the stink bombs into the DeploraBall, it was discussed that a purse will be used.

Both group are reported to have a list of attendees posted online with "dossiers" of derog information.

Both groups have a least two tickets to get in; they are trying for four or five tickets (and hopefully a female to utilize a purse for concealed items).

It was reported the names of possible ticket holders are (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) (attended the North Dakota Pipeline protests), and (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) female (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) is described as having long unkempt hair and "always barefoot". Another possible conspirator is described as an old man with a Santa-style white beard, "beer belly," yellow teeth, and a "dirty beanie" on his head. His role in UNK, but appears to act as a quasi-security guard during meetings.

On Friday, 1/20/17, Disrupt J20 members plan on shutting down the WDC to prevent the INAUG.

They will reportedly utilize three waves:

Wave 1: block the highways leading into WDC, with a focus on Virginia travel and ingress/egress points

Wave 2: will stagger themselves into entry points into the Inauguration route to avoid law enforcement detection, and intend to block the entry points with human chains, possibly handcuffing themselves.

Wave 3: intends to shut down the Metro Stations. Three Metro Stations are being targeted: Metro Center, L'Enfant Plaza, and Gallery Place.

Disrupt J20 members plan on chaining the locations to prevent entry/exit, and chaining the metro trains to fixed objects so the conductors will not be able to leave the station.

Activists believe that the Police will be using frequency jammers, so they may communicate via "Firechat."

Disrupt J20 is focused on mag checkpoints, in particular blockages. On 1/20, they plan to arrive early and scatter into small numbers to infiltrate the mags and not draw attention. At some point during the day (NFI) they will activate and begin blocking entrances.

Disrupt J20 main DC POC is (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) He reportedly is also acting as the group's legal advisor.

Disrupt J20 advised its members that if they are going to punch/strike someone, they should do so off-camera. Disrupt J20 anticipate that MPD will not act as they expect they will support their actions and are perceived as anti-Trump by its members.

Disrupt J20 plans on housing out-of-state participants at St. Stevens Church (1525 Newton St., NW, WDC) and at the Love and Solidarity Collective (439 Park Road NW, WDC)

OTHER:

OSINT research regarding the information below for the dates 1/14, 1/17 – 1/18, revealed the #DisruptJ20 group will be conducting a direct action camp from 1/14 – 1/16 at American University, School of International Science to educate demonstration participants' self-defense and resisting arrest tactics. This actions are being promoted as a way to protect oneself if attacked by Trump supporters but also to be used as a way to resist arrest from law enforcement. This training also includes legal training, and a segment called, "How to Cop Watch". No further information regarding the "How to Cop Watch" portion of the camp has been provided.

In regards to the 1/17-1/18 disruptions, OSINT research was unable to locate any published activities that directly and specifically discuss any dry run protests occurring around DC. While the official DisruptJ20 website indicates that there will be several events taking place in DC between January 17-19, the information published does not specify any dry run protests.

Further OSINT research found a possible related event in which two car caravans are scheduled to travel to Washington, DC from Chicago (Trinity Episcopal Church parking lot, 125 E. 26th, Chicago, IL). The website shows the event is being referred to as "Bring DC to a Halt". The website indicates the purpose of the caravans is to bring demonstrators from Chicago to DC "to inspire, awaken, and draw forward the reservoirs of people in anguish over the horrific future represented by the Trump-Pence regime." The first car caravan departs on 01/14 at 0600 HRS and the second car caravan will depart on 01/17 at 0600 HRS. The website predicts the travel time between destinations will be 16 hours. A return trip is scheduled on Sunday, January 22 arriving in Chicago late Sunday night. According to the event's Facebook page, 55 people have been invited and only 4 people have indicated to be participating.

This movement "NO! In the Name of Humanity, We REFUSE to Accept a Fascist America!" has come together in a few weeks, with a real plan to STOP this Trump & Pence regime BEFORE it starts! Come to DC now, as soon as possible. Our actions and organizing can inspire, awaken and draw forward the reservoirs of people in anguish over the horrific future represented by the Trump-Pence regime. Critical to that now before the Inauguration is "bringing DC to a halt!" Now's the time to act, to take off work or school and flood the streets of Washington, DC with millions of people.

We are organizing 2 CAR CARAVANS to Washington, DC:
FIRST ONE LEAVES CHICAGO 6:00 AM SATURDAY MORNING JAN 14
The travel time is approximately 16 hours with stops. We will be arriving late Saturday night

SECOND ONE LEAVES CHICAGO 6:00 AM TUESDAY MORNING, JAN 17, arriving late Tuesday night.

Both leave from Trinity Episcopal Church parking lot, 125 E. 26th (at Michigan).

Return trip leaves Washington DC Sunday morning, Jan 22, to arrive in Chicago late Sunday night, before midnight depending upon weather.

What happens on the streets of Washington, DC might determine whether some people will want to stay longer and, if so, we can make alternative arrangements for that possibility.

Email Travel@RefuseFascism-Chicago.org ASAP if you can go or are thinking of going:

- Include your name, phone number, email address, which date you can leave.
 - Do you have a reliable car that can seat at least 4, including the driver?
 - Do you have a valid driver's license and can help drive?
 - Can you drive a manual stick shift?
 - Can you help pay for gas and food or raise from friends and family?
- Estimate for gas and tolls $60/person if 4 in a car.

Fashion Tips for the Brave

The same goes double if you lack the privileges of citizenship or you fear your employer may discriminate against you for your political beliefs. Local and federal law enforcement agencies are compiling extensive files on everyone they deem suspect; if you don't want them invading your privacy, it may be appropriate for you to remain anonymous while exercising your supposed right to free speech. The same goes double if you lack the privileges of citizenship or you fear your employer may discriminate against you for your political beliefs. In the light of the felony charges resulting from the recent RNC protests, it is especially important for activists to be aware of this. We've already published extensively on this topic, most notably in the guide Blocs, Black and Otherwise. The following is largely a refresher for anyone who needs it before hitting the streets again. Fashion Tips for the Brave and Fabulous Do you desire to be an autonomous individual rather than a faceless, mass-produced cog in the machine? Great! That is, unless you are marching in a bloc—where conformity is a weapon that you can use to smash the machine itself. The goal of the bloc as a tactic is to have everyone look as similar as possible, so that, ideally, no single individual can be identified within the anonymous mass. This helps to keep everybody safer. If only some people within a bloc take these precautions, the cops can more easily spot and target individuals and groups, which is dangerous both for those who are acting within the bloc and for those who are not. Those who make the effort to stay anonymous can draw extra police attention; those who don't can be more easily identified, which can make them easier targets. Neither of these situations is desirable. Take this stuff seriously! If you're setting out to accomplish something risky, taking these precautions is crucial. If you're not, you can help to protect your comrades and avoid making yourself a target. • If you're going to wear a mask, keep it on at all appropriate times! If you are captured on camera or witnessed at any point with your mask off, you can then be easily identified with it on. • Be extremely conscientious about where and when you change into and out of your mask and anonymous clothing; there should be no cameras or hostile witnesses. If possible, explore the area in advance to find appropriate spaces for changing. Remember that police are especially likely to target masked individuals who are not in a crowd that is similarly dressed. • Wear different outfits layered one upon the other, so you'll be prepared for any eventuality. Ideally, you should have one outfit for getting to the site of the action without attracting attention, your anonymous gear for the action itself, and then another outfit underneath so you can look like a harmless civilian as you exit the area. Don't forget to stay hydrated, particularly if all those clothes get hot. • If you have tattoos that are or could be visible, cover them up! You can do this with makeup or concealer, especially if you use heavy-duty products designed for that purpose. Many actors and dancers use Dermablend to cover up tattoos, burns, and scars. It comes in numerous colors that can be mixed to match your skin tone, and it's water resistant and rated for 12 hours of wear. It's expensive, but cheaper than bail! If you can't find Dermablend or a similar product, cover your tattoos with clothing that won't ride up. Tuck your clothing in if you have to. • Likewise, if you have visible piercings, take them out—or at least cover them up so they are sure not to be exposed. • Do not march in a bloc wearing your regular clothing, especially if it's distinctive. Cops may be stupid, but they can probably match the pictures of the masked-up person with the purple polka-dotted pants to pictures of the same person in the same outfit minus the mask—even if the pictures were taken on different days. • If you are going to carry a backpack or bag, don't take the one you carry around in everyday life. No matter how perfect your outfit is, it's all for naught if your bag is recognizable—especially if, like many people, you change bags much less frequently than you change clothes. • The same goes for your shoes, for similar reasons—wear different ones during the action than you wear every day. This is also important because cops can attempt to use footprints or other traces from shoes as evidence. • Do not wear patches or other identifiable insignia on your clothing while in a bloc, unless everyone else has exactly the same ones in exactly the same places. • Don't just cover your face! Bandanas are popular and convenient, but they don't conceal enough. Cover your head completely so your hair cannot be seen—especially if it's distinctive. In a black bloc, you can do this by wearing a ski mask or making a mask out of a T-shirt—stretch the neck hole across your eyes and tie the sleeves behind your head, with the rest of the shirt covering your head and shoulders. In other circumstances, you could try a wig, if that fits the aesthetic of your action. • If possible, cover your eyes. Goggles can do this while serving the dual purpose of protecting your eyes from chemical weapons; nondescript sunglasses could also work in a pinch. Both of these can be obtained in prescription form and are better to use than your regular glasses, particularly if your regular glasses are distinctive. Contact lenses are not recommended in situations where you may come into contact with chemical weapons. • Be careful not to leave fingerprints and DNA evidence! Wear cloth gloves—leather and latex can retain fingerprints and even pass them on to objects you touch. Wipe down tools and other items with alcohol in advance, to clean fingerprints off them—you never know what might get lost in the chaos. Don't forget about the batteries inside flashlights! • Practice at home! Don't go out in a bulky outfit you've never worn before expecting to pull off cop-shocking feats of dexterity. You need to be familiar with your outfit and comfortable moving in it; it's important that your vision isn't compromised, too. • Do not let any of this give you a false sense of security. Be careful! Assess your relationship to risk honestly; don't do anything if you're not sure you could live with the worst possible consequences. Stay aware of your surroundings and listen to your instincts. Make sure you know and trust the people you're working with, especially when it comes to high-risk activities. Practice proper security culture at all times. Know and assert your legal rights [PDF - 9 MB], especially in stressful situations. Doing so may not make things better, but failing to do so will certainly make them worse! Don't get caught! Stay safe(r), and smash the state!
