GIVE BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF WHAT HAPPENED:

The following statements are presented for the sole purpose of establishing probable cause to support the affidavit in support of the arrest warrant and do not represent the totality of the facts and circumstances known to the affiant. Your affiant, Detective Jacob Krycia of the Metropolitan Police Department's (MPD) First District Detective's Unit (1DDU), has been involved in the investigation of the following case.

On August 25th, 2026, members of the First District Detective's Unit were notified by the MPD-National Guard liaison that a National Guardsman had pulled out their gun and pointed it at another National Guardsman at 1226 H Street NE. The liaison advised that the Guardsmen were at their hotel in Virginia at the time, but that they would be brought back to the DC Armory on August 26th so MPD could investigate. On August 26th, 2026, members of the First District Detective's Unit were notified that all parties related to the offense were at the DC Armory. Detectives Krycia and Matos responded to the location to investigate.

Victim and Witness Interviews

Detective Krycia spoke with Victim 1 (N.J.), who provided the following statement. Victim 1 said that, on August 25, 2026, she and her fellow National Guardsmen were sitting in their black van in front of Popeyes, located at 1226 H Street NE. Victim 1 was sitting in the front passenger seat, Witness 1 was sitting behind her, and Suspect Mitchell was sitting in the third-row passenger seat. Victim 1 and Suspect Mitchell were engaged in an argument over their hairstyles and whether they were following Army regulations. During the argument, Suspect Mitchell stated something to the effect of, "I would slap the Jackson 5 out of you." The Victim and Suspect went back and forth several more times, at which time Victim 1 told Suspect Mitchell to "shut the fuck up."

At this point, Victim 1 heard what she described as a "holster click" and thought that the Suspect had just flicked his holster open. Victim 1 then heard Witness 1 say something to the effect of, "Put that up. You almost shot me in the hand." It was only later that Victim 1 was informed by other Guardsmen in the van that Suspect Mitchell had drawn his weapon. Victim 1 then exited the vehicle and walked into the Popeyes. Detective Krycia asked if she believed that Suspect Mitchell's firearm was loaded on the day of the offense, and she said that she believed it was, since all the National Guard's firearms are generally loaded.

Witness 2 was on his phone when he heard that the conversation between Victim 1 and Suspect Mitchell was going wrong. Witness 2 further stated that he heard Victim 1 stating, "Shut the fuck up, try me" at which point Suspect Mitchell unclicked his holster and the witness observed the suspect's arm up and heard Witness 1 stating, "put that shit down" Witness 2 didn't see the weapon. Witness 1 then told Suspect Mitchell to put it up (holster it) and asked him, "why would you do that". Suspect Mitchell replied, "It doesn't matter, it was on safe". Witness 3 confirmed that Suspect Mitchell's gun was loaded and had a round in the chamber. Witness 3 stated that has known Suspect Mitchell for over a year.

Witness 4 stated that on August 25, 2026, at approximately 1130 AM, while in front of Popeyes and taking a break from patrol, she heard Suspect Mitchell and Victim 1 in a verbal dispute about hair. Mitchell playing with his holster, however, she didn't see Suspect Mitchell pull out his service weapon. Witness 5 stated that she has known Suspect Mitchell since May 18, 2026, and sees him every day.

Witness 6 stated that on August 25, 2026, at approximately 11:30 AM, he parked the van by the Popeyes. Victim 1 and Suspect Mitchell were arguing about an unknown topic. During the argument, Suspect Mitchell stated something about how his team walks more than Victim 1's team. Victim 1 then replied and said something to the effect of, "[Witness 6] walks more than all of you." Witness 6 then heard Witness 1 state, "You could have hurt me," at which time Witness 6 said, "Hey don't pull out your weapon." However, Witness 6 never actually saw the Suspect pull out his weapon

Identification

All Witnesses were presented Suspect Mitchell for a show-up inside the DC armory, approximately 15 yards away and without obstructions.

- Witness 4 saw Suspect Mitchell without the need of prescription glasses, and immediately stated Yes, at 1121 hours on August 26, 2026.

Witness 6 was not included in the show up because he was tasked with guarding Suspect Mitchell by his chain of command at the DC Armory. In addition upon detective's arrival on scene at 1015 hours, Witness 6 is the person who pointed at Suspect Mitchell when Detective Matos entered the communication office. Suspect Mitchell identified himself by providing his Georgia driver's license and military ID card.

Suspect Interview

Detectives Krycia and Matos then conducted a custodial interview of Suspect Mitchell. Detectives advised him that he was not under arrest, but he was the target of the investigation. Detective Krycia read the Suspect his Miranda rights at 1132 hours, at which time Suspect Mitchell elected to waive his rights and speak with Detectives.

Suspect Mitchell initially reported that he was in a playful argument with Victim 1 when he pulled a pistol magazine out of his vest pocket and pointed it at her as part of the playful banter. During the course of the interview, Suspect Mitchell recanted that version of events, and stated that during the argument, he did pull out his pistol and point it in the direction of Victim 1, but that the pistol was pointed at a roughly 45-degree angle
