Acknowledgments

As always, we are grateful for the intellectual and financial assistance of the Fraser Institute, especially its President, Niels Veldhuis. Without the assistance and guidance of both Michael Walker, former Executive Director of the Fraser Institute, and the late Milton Friedman, this project would never have gotten off the ground.

The members of the Economic Freedom Network again provided valuable support for this report. Our thanks also go to Kathy Makinen and Hugo Moises Montesinos of Florida State University, Nicolas Cachanosky of Metropolitan State University of Denver, and Joe Connors of Florida Southern College, who provided us with research assistance. We are grateful for the hard work of many at the Fraser Institute who help with the project. Also, thanks to Ian Vasquez at the Cato Institute for his continued support.

Our thanks go also to the Charles Koch Foundation and Searle Freedom Trust for their support.

Albania Albanian Center for Economic Research

The Albanian Centre for Economic Research (ACER) is the Albania's first independent non-profit, non-governmental organization aiming at high-quality policy-oriented research in economics with specific emphasis on subjects concerning the Albanian economy. The ACER's philosophy is to build bridges between scholars, policy-makers, and public opinion and foster the dialogue in the interest of an accelerated reforming process, economic development, and prosperity. The research activities at the ACER are divided into five areas: (1) Public Sector, (2) Household Sector, (3) Corporate Sector, (4) Macroeconomic Analysis and Forecasting Sector (5) Other Research Projects. Among the objectives of the ACER is to study subjects of wider economic interest and publish articles in its quarterly academic journal entitled Albanian Socio-Economic Review.

Argentina Fundación Libertad

Fundación Libertad is a private, non-profit institution working towards two main goals: the research and distribution of public-policy issues (specifically in socio-economic and business areas) and the promotion of the concept of a free-market society. Founded in Rosario, Argentina, in 1988 by a group of businessmen, professionals, and intellectuals, the Foundation has developed its activities with the support of more than 200 private companies. Its projects include courses, lectures, seminars, research, studies, and publications as well as a strong permanent presence in the media, through columns, and television and radio programs produced by the Foundation. These projects have focused on economic policies, education, regulations, and public spending. Outstanding guest speakers have delivered lectures and conferences for the Fundación Libertad; these include Peruvian writer Mario Vargas Llosa, Nobel prize-winning economists such as Gary Becker, Douglass North, Robert Lucas, and James Buchanan, historian Paul Johnson, Nobel Peace Prize Laureate Lech Walessa, and other intellectuals like Jean François Revel. Fundación Libertad has also led the creation of REFUNDAR, a network of Argentine foundations made up of ten organizations located in the country's major cities. This network has helped us spread our ideas all over the country and is affiliated with similar international organizations.

Azerbaijan Center for Economic and Political Research

The Center for Economic and Political Research, Azerbaijan, is a non-profit, non-governmental, research institute founded in 1994. Its mission is to facilitate the country's democratization and economic liberalization and to increase the role of civil society. The main objectives of the Center's activities are analyzing the economic situation and progress of market reforms, political processes, foreign political relations, and regional economic and political tendencies. The Center also conducts sociological surveys and holds conferences, round-tables, and seminars on different aspects of economic and political reforms in the country.

Bahamas The Nassau Institute

The Nassau Institute is an independent, non-political, non-profit institute that promotes economic growth, employment, and entrepreneurial activity. It believes that this can best be achieved with a free-market economy and a decent society—one that embraces the rule of law, the right of private property, the free exchange of property and services, and the individual virtues of self-control, commitment, and good will.

Bangladesh Making Our Economy Right

Bangladesh's lone free-market think tank since 1991, Making Our Economy Right (MOER) never became a formally registered institute due to government's complex rules and regulations. In a country simultaneously known for poor governance and internationally renowned civil-society organizations, MOER's advocacy for rule of law and free markets is often misunderstood as self-contradictory. Mind-boggling government interference also keeps us miles away from fund-raising activities. Against all odds, MOER has promoted the cause of free-market capitalism through all available means throughout the years. The advent of Facebook has made the global libertarian academia, commentators, and activists easily accessible to MOER. Social media communication with individuals, groups, or political parties appears to have been more effective compared to years of newspaper op-eds and seminars.

Belarus Scientific Research Mises Center

Scientific Research Mises Center was founded in 2001. Its mission is to advance ideas and ideals of a free-market democratic society based on individual choice and personal responsibility and to create an open community of people who share those ideas. The Center promotes the original ideas of limited government, individual liberty, and private property through publications and discussion forums and conferences. The goal of the Center is to demonstrate the power of private institutions, both for-profit and non-profit, to create a good society, and to foster the understanding that free choice of a fully informed individual is the foundation for a just, prosperous, and open society.

Belgium The Ludwig von Mises Institute-Europe

The Ludwig von Mises Institute-Europe was established on October 12, 2002 as a non-partisan think-tank fostering an open and free society. We aim to: promote a free and open economy with a particular focus on the economic ideas of the Austrian School; bridge the gap between "Brussels" and the European citizens and between Eurocrats and Eurosceptics; act as an interface between top academics, senior business leaders, respected media commentators, and leading politicians across the EU and Brussels; connect liberal-minded individuals and organizations at national and international levels; and teach young professionals and students to learn about the workings of the European institutions and Liberal ideas.

Bolivia Política Publicas para la Libertad

The mission of Política Publicas para la Libertad (POPULI) is to generate and promote public policies, in accordance with the country's social and economic realities, within the field of private enterprise, under the principle of state subsidiarity, preserving property rights and human rights, and strengthening the concept of liberty. Its vision is to generate and promote a benchmark of public policies while maintaining institutional independence and a strong commitment to the values of a free society.

Bosnia and Herzegovina Center for Advancement of Free Enterprise

The Center for Advancement of Free Enterprise (CAFE), through its activities, is raising awareness of free-market ideas, entrepreneurship, freedom and personal responsibility in Bosnia and Herzegovina. We offer Bosnian youth information on how to build their capacity and create a prosperous future. For the business sector, we promote policies and a mentality that encourages the creation of a market-friendly environment by reducing taxes, duties, regulations, and so on.

CAFE is working to be a strong and honest partner to the entrepreneurial and business sector by working for open and free market to contribute jointly to a brighter future in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The top-level experts, Chinese and foreign alike, help assess the regional and global implications of China's rise in the context of international political and economic reconfiguration. CCG aims to become the leading international think-tank for China's society and business community and seeks to remain independent, objective, and constructive in all its research activities.

Colombia Instituto de Ciencia Política

Since 1987, the Instituto de Ciencia Política (ICP) has established itself as a center of democratic thought and as an association of free men and women united by a common affection for an intellectual identity with the principles, values, and feelings that constitute democracy as a political, economic, social, and cultural system, and united also by their desire to act constantly and efficiently towards overcoming the lack of stability and mistakes of our political sector, in order to achieve economic, political, social, and environmental development. ICP, as an influential think-tank in the nation, has been able, through its studies, recommendations, and debates, to mediate decisively in the new directions and measures taken on different occasions by public authorities, as well as in the formation of new national political thought favorable to the market economy, economic openness, necessary privatizations, and the modernization of the State. The institution is not, nor aspires to be, a new political party or movement, and it is independent of parties, religions, and governments. Its mission is to establish as fundamental principles the free-market economy, competition, and individual initiative, as well as the reduction of State intervention and control to the minimum indispensable.

Founded in 2004, The Lion Rock Institute believes in the potential of the individual and free-market values to provide the strongest base for guiding successful government policy in Hong Kong. The Institute was created to ensure that freedom and prosperity would continue to thrive in Hong Kong. The Institute's mission is to promote free-market ideas throughout Hong Kong to improve the lives of Hong Kongers. The Institute does this through having a direct and demonstrable impact on government policy by advancing concrete solutions to keep government small, taxes low, and restrictions on business and the individual minimal. It educates policy makers, active political participants, and the general public on the virtues of free enterprise in building a prosperous Hong Kong through various media outlets. The Institute globally promotes Hong Kong's excellence in public policy that exemplifies free-market values.

Indonesia Center for Indonesian Policy Studies

The Center for Indonesian Policy Studies (CIPS) is dedicated to providing policy analysis and practical policy recommendations to decision-makers within Indonesia's legislative and executive branches of government. As a strictly non-partisan and non-profit think tank, CIPS promotes social and economic reforms that are based on the belief that only civil, political, and economic freedom allow Indonesia to prosper. CIPS also promotes international dialogue and encourages comparative research of key issues concerning Indonesia. Moreover, CIPS trains new Indonesian talent in policy analysis and supports the next generation of think tank leaders to promote an open and prosperous Indonesia.

Mongolia Mongolian National Chamber of Commerce and Industry

The Mongolian National Chamber of Commerce and Industry (MNCCI) was established in 2004 when it designed the first-ever red-tape perception index as a "naming and shaming" tool for the government institutions. It is based on an annual survey among the business community. MNCCI has published a business confidence index on an annual basis, as well as various publications, statements, opinions, and proposals on macroeconomic and sectorial policies, based on the views on business, environment, and legal frameworks of more than 40 councils and sub-councils. The MNCCI also sponsors meetings, conferences, and seminars on business development issues. The MNCCI is an independent and neutral institution and does not take financing from either government or international organizations apart from joint project activities.

Pakistan Policy Research Institute of Market Economy

The Policy Research Institute of Market Economy (PRIME) is an independent think tank based in Islamabad, Pakistan with a vision of an open, free, and prosperous Pakistan. It improves political decision-making by advocating free-market policy reforms through high-quality research and intellectual training. The organization partners with the Friedrich Naumann Foundation for Freedom, Atlas Economic Research Foundation, and the Center for International Private Enterprise (CIPE) on various research and advocacy projects. The staff of PRIME has expertise in economics, trade, policy, and business and is governed by a three-member Board.

Sri Lanka Advocata Institute

Advocata Institute is an independent policy think tank based in Colombo, dedicated to economic development through free markets. We conduct research, provide commentary and hold events to promote sound policy ideas compatible with a free society in Sri Lanka. We want to see a country where there is abundant opportunity, where anyone may succeed through hard work, and free exchange regardless of ethnicity, cast, creed, or religion—a place where everyone's right to their life, liberty, and property is respected. Our mantra is Reason—Freedom—Prosperity.

Ukraine EasyBusiness

EasyBusiness is a nonprofit organization that focuses on advising the Ukrainian government concerning the implementation of deregulation reforms. The key task of the team is to help create conditions for a successful and easy way of doing business. The main objective of EasyBusiness is to reduce the state's regulatory burden on business by simplifying administrative procedures, reducing regulatory agencies and frequency of inspections, abolishing unnecessary permits and licenses, liberalizing labor law, providing better protection of property rights and increasing position of Ukraine in Doing Business rank. EasyBusiness is a partner of Atlas Network, global network of organizations with the same values all over the world. Our organization closely collaborates with government, business and expert community, international organizations, industry associations, academia, and civil society.

Ukraine Ukrainian Center for Independent Political Research

The Ukrainian Center for Independent Political Research (UCIPR) was established in early 1991 as a non-profit, non-partisan, and non-governmental research institution that would increase awareness of democracy among the Ukrainian people and analyze domestic and international politics and security. UCIPR is politically independent; it does not accept any funding from either the state or any political party. UCIPR publishes books and research papers on Ukraine's domestic and foreign policy, the economy in transition, security, relations with neighboring states, the Crimean dilemma, interethnic relations, and the freedom of the news media. The Center has hosted a number of national and international conferences and workshops.

Ukraine Ukrainian Economic Freedom Foundation

The Ukrainian Economic Freedom Foundation (UEFF) is a non-governmental advocacy organization the founders of which believe that economic freedom and rule of law are the cornerstones of people's wealth and public prosperity. Our mission is to minimize and simplify taxes as well as to limit government's control over our lives and business as much as possible. We pay taxes that government asks us to pay so government's spending must be publicly justified, simple, and transparently administrated. To protect our independence, we accept no government funding or contracts.

United States Atlas Network

Atlas Network (also known as the Atlas Economic Research Foundation) has the mission of strengthening the worldwide freedom movement. Atlas connects a network of more than 400 think tanks in 90 countries, and creates value for these partners via training programs, policy conferences, grant and prize programs, and collaborative projects. It also runs projects in a dozen languages to discover new allies for advancing its vision of a free, prosperous, and peaceful world where limited governments defend the rule of law, private property, and free markets.

United States Independent Institute

The Independent Institute is the award-winning, non-partisan, research and educational organization that sponsors in-depth studies of critical social and economic issues. The mission of the Independent Institute is to boldly advance peaceful, prosperous, and free societies grounded in a commitment to human worth and dignity. In order to fully understand public issues and possible solutions, the Institute's program adheres to the highest standards of independent scholarly inquiry. The resulting studies are published and widely distributed as books, The Independent Review, and other publications; and form the basis for numerous conference and media programs. Through uncommon independence, depth, and clarity, the Independent Institute expands the frontiers of our knowledge and fosters new and effective directions for government reform.

United States The William J. O'Neil Center for Global Markets and Freedom

The William J. O'Neil Center for Global Markets and Freedom in the Edwin L. Cox School of Business at Southern Methodist University was made possible through the generosity of SMU Alumnus, William J. "Bill" O'Neil (BBA, '55) and his wife Fay C. O'Neil. The focus of the O'Neil Center is the study of the impact of competitive market forces on freedom and prosperity in the global economy. The main goals of the center are: (1) to conduct economic research on the nature, causes, and consequences of economic freedom and other topics related to global prosperity; and (2) to provide economic education to students and the wider public on the principles of an open, competitive, and free economy.
