Background/Context:

- Teachers could do this activity to establish these norms before a debate

1) Purpose

- a) Introduction of what class is going to do; explain the goal (potentially a KWL)
- b) Learn more if we're more engaged
- c) Understand the purpose
- d) Reasons for protocol
- e) Critical thinking, civil discourse
- f) Need for every student to feel safe and valued
- g) Frame the goal:
 - i) Clarity, understanding
 - ii) Not persuasion
- h) When we have discussions, what's the purpose?
 - i) Listen
 - j) Use your peers as a learning resource

2) Group brainstorm discussion:

- a) Theme: What are the dos and don't of classroom discussions?
- b) Assign roles (set the norm that everyone has something to contribute)
 - i) Recorder
 - ii) Visual aid
- c) Small groups/pair-share/whole class
- d) Goal: get buy-in from them, take ownership
- e) Write on poster

3) Do's/Don'ts

Do's
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Focus on ideas, not people● Seek to understand before being understood● Keep it in the classroom/maintain the “safe space”● Back up all claims w/ specific evidence from reliable sources● Open-ended questions● Academic language (use script/sentence starters when necessary)
